

"SPECIAL EMERGENCY ORDER" (I.S.R.)

MEMBER IN CHARGE,
R.C.M. POLICE, DORVAL DETACHMENT,
DORVAL, QUEBEC.

1. Upon receipt of instructions to open this envelope you will immediately commence the following procedure:

- (a) Read these instructions, together with copy of "General Instructions" herewith thoroughly. The time upon which apprehensions and searches will commence shall be herein after names "X-Hours". The numeral following the word "JERICHO" in the message you received to open this envelope will be the time of "X-Hours" on the 24-hour system. (Local time).
- (b) From the time you open these instructions maintain absolute security by mentioning your orders to no one. You will be responsible for seeing that no other member of your group breaks security by word or action. This operation is TOP SECRET.
- (c) You will call in your Detachment members at once, and see that your transport is fully operational and prepared for continuous service.
- (d) A list of suspects' automobile license numbers will be dispatched by available means to you by the Member i/c Operations. Persons found in such cars should be detained and their bona fides checked. A list of suspect names will also be provided by the Member i/c Operations and such persons boarding any plane should be detained.
- (e) Should detentions or searches be required in your detachment area, detention document and "Search Warrant" will be found herewith in a separate envelope. These will be self-explanatory and the necessary forms should be filled out on the completion of your assignment.
- (f) You will report progress of your operation by available channels within two hours after "X-Hour" to the Member i/c Operation. No names shall be used, only appropriate number.
- (g) Detained persons and exhibits will be retained in safe custody until instructions are received as to disposition.
